

Help with morning routines:

https://challengingbehavior.cbcs.usf.edu/docs/backpack/BackpackConnection_routines_morning.pdf

<https://www.zerotothree.org/resources/223-creating-routines-for-love-and-learning>

Help with bedtime routines:

https://challengingbehavior.cbcs.usf.edu/docs/backpack/BackpackConnection_routines_bedtime.pdf

Routines for toddlers and why they are helpful:

<http://howtoddlersthive.com/the-secret-to-getting-your-child-out-the-door-and-on-time-and-without-a-fuss/#more-2345>

Great PDF on what children CAN do at each age level 8 months to 5 years old.

http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/documents/teaching_routines.pdf

There are more lengthy articles on ZeroToThree.org which you can have access to if you sign up as a member.

Clothing organizer for the week:

https://www.bhg.com/decorating/storage/organization-basics/declutter-your-home/?socsrc=bhgpin070115clothes&page=16&crlt.pid=camp.bDX841U94Zol&slide=slide_8c4e07fb-5408-4512-bc29-04e00315e720#slide_8c4e07fb-5408-4512-bc29-04e00315e720

Back to school organization blog post for lunches, clothes, and backpack/schoolwork

<http://www.iheartorganizing.com/2013/08/back-to-school-organization.html>

Visuals for ways to your children with their routines.

Cutting a stick in half and realigning it on the inside of the shoes.

Have a visual schedule that your child can add to as they finish each task.

Organize a bathroom caddy to help them remember each task.

Have a spot for each item so that they know where they can find it when they need it.

